Words from the Honourable Chancellor

Pragjyotishpur, the city of eastern astrology has made momentous contributions in strengthening the nation's unity and the socio-cultural fabric of our society.

Our university is one of its kind in the field of value-based system of higher education and the role of a newsletter in such a case is extremely important. A newsletter would help to keep peers updated not only about recent development, but it will also act as a medium for a shared value base. The purpose of a newsletter is to keep your students, staff, employees and the members of the society updated about important contributions while aiming to improve morale and boost productivity, innovation and excellence.

Our youth must excel in innovation and research and leverage technology for the benefit of the common man. The 21st Century will belong to knowledge-rich societies and nations like ours. I am sure that the sound academic and cultural grounding of the students will help the nation attain greater heights of excellence.

I wish good luck to this newsletter.

Regards,

*Professor Pradeep Kumar Joshi,
Chancellor,
Pragjyotishpur University.*

About Pragjyotishpur University

Pragjyotishpur is a place of ancient India that signifies, connotatively, the rays of primordial light, and the geographical area that remained associated with several anecdotes belonging even to the Ramayana and the Mahabharata. It being a place of enlightening wisdom, Pragjyotishpur deserves to be a center of high-class education and research activity vouching for attending all types of cross-cutting arenas by overcoming barriers of limitations.

Keeping this in view, the present university will step into the field of education in the North-East where the first ray of the Sun falls with its shining glow. This university will not only enshrine the dazzling legacies that this area is famous for, but will also insinuate the power of new ideas and modern technology in its scholastic essence, remaining unbiased to any type of intersections and innovations.

It will aim at generating creative knowledge leaders through incessant practice and research in different academic and social directions. Thus, this university is going to be a bridge between knowledge and its application by filling up the hiatus created by the so-called modern education system of colonial influx.

This university will echo the muse of the famous saying of the Gita, tasya prajna pratisthita, invoking the essence of true knowledge by creating steady, firm, compassionate, brave, patriotic, and dedicated human beings through the process of inculcating the sense of shrad-dha, anusasana, satyanveshana, dhairya, aikya, and karuna. Thus, this unique academic institution will imbibe in the minds of the learners qualities like dedication, transparency, accountability, patriotism, social responsibility, scientific temper, innovation, and openness of the mind.

Each and every corner of this university will enchant the rhythm of the true essence of knowledge, i.e. Jnana, wisdom, i.e. Prajna, and truth i.e. Satya, the three explicit components of learning which are incorporated in the mandate of the NEP 2020 as the rich heritage of Indian knowledge system.

Words from the Honourable Vice Chancellor

Pragjyotishpur University was born in 2022 with a vision to create global knowledge leaders for the holistic development of humanity. It is a student-centric and teacher-driven University established with public support. Our commitment to upholding the National Education Policy 2020 (NEP 2020) in both word and deed has garnered immense expectations from across the nation. It is our collective responsibility to exceed these expectations, and this is only achievable through our unified efforts. It is both an honour and a source of immense pleasure that destiny has bestowed upon me the privilege of leading Pragjyotishpur University as its founding Vice Chancellor. I embrace this role with profound dedication.

This newsletter is our shared space to share the university news with all stakeholders. In the maiden issue of the newsletter, I extend my warmest greetings to every student, every faculty member and everyone with us on the journey. Our university is not just an institution but also a family, a thriving ecosystem of knowledge, creativity, and diversity. It is a place where dreams are nurtured, where innovation flourishes, and where the pursuit of excellence knows no bounds. In this context, I am elated to announce that our undergraduate programs, initiated this academic session, fully align with the principles of NEP 2020, with a special emphasis on nurturing our cultural heritage, 'Bharatiyata.' Already, we have implemented some of the finest practices in both research and teaching.

With unwavering confidence, I predict that the days ahead will be defined by an abundance of opportunities, formidable challenges, and remarkable achievements. Together, as a united academic community, we will rise to the occasion, for Pragjyotishpur University stands as a beacon of knowledge, a fountain of inspiration, and a catalyst for positive change.

I extend my warm regards to each and every one of you and eagerly anticipate the exciting and transformative journey that lies ahead.

Warm regards,

Professor Smriti Kumar Sinha,
Vice Chancellor,
Pragjyotishpur University.

The first edition of the first year of this newsletter of Pragjyotishpur University, Guwahati, a newly established university is handed over to the readers on the occasion of the first celebration of the Foundation Day. The historic name of the ancient Assam is Pragjyotishpur. The place where the sun rises is adored as Pragjyotishpur; the place where the astrology was studied first is Pragjyotishpur. The heart land of the Indian culture and civilization is Pragjyotishpur. Pragjyotishpur University is named behind this historicity. It's our pride and the newsletter of this historic university is named as "Kaumudi". This is a Sanskrit word meaning moonlight and also it means causing delight.

The university stepped up with the formation of the non-government organization known as the Shankardev Education and Research Foundation (SERF) which is the sponsoring body of the university. Pragjyotishpur University has now become candied itself as one of the higher education institutions in the north-eastern region in particular and in Bharat in general after a long-drawn well-organized concerns. Consequently, the 'Kaumudi' has come into being with a view to preserving the record of the day-to day activities of the university. The readers will be able to get some important information about the institution in its each edition of the newsletter, 'Kaumudi'.

CHANDRAYAAN -3

CHANDRAYAAN 3 is India's ambitious and successful lunar mission. Following the footsteps of its predecessors, CHANDRAYAAN 1 and CHANDRAYAAN2. India is the only country to successfully attempt to achieve a soft landing on the South pole moon's surface, so far.

About the Mission --

CHANDRAYAAN 3 was launched at 2:35pm on July 14,2023 from the Satish Dhawan Space Centre, India. The Vikram Lander performed a successful soft landing on the moon at 6:30pm on August 24,2023. ISRO started this project to gather valuable information about the South pole moon surface. This mission focused on studying the moon's geology, mineralogy and exosphere which help to understand of the moon's origin and evolution.

The Vikram Lander and Pragyan Rover performed different set of tasks on lunar surface. This included finding the presence of sulphur and recording relative temperature. Pragyan travelled over 100m, confirming the presence of sulphur,iron, oxygen and other elements on the moon. However, beyond its scientific objectives, the rover also carries a symbolic mission. The rover's rear wheels will leave imprint of ISRO and national symbol of lion capital of Ashoka at Sarnath, on the lunar surface and leaving India's mark behind. Lastly we are so proud to be Indian.
